

Psalm 99-108 Discussion questions:

1. Was there a particular psalm, verse or phrase that spoke to hope and encouragement to you today? Can you find it and share it with us?
2. How does going back through the psalms before and after the lesson help you?
3. For those of you who are praying the psalms or journaling, do you have something that you would like to share with the group?
4. Last week, Mary encouraged us to sing of the goodness of God every day for a week. Why is it important for us to sing of God's good/awesome deeds? Did you do it this week? If so, where and how?
5. Have you ever felt like a little lost sheep? How has The Good Shepherd sought you and brought you back into the fold? Does anyone feel like they are lost and wandering today in search of the Shepherd?
6. Psalm 103 is an incredible Psalm to pray for praising God and praying for healing. Do you think you could memorize part (or all) of this psalm?
